17th Annual Los Feliz Village Street Fair Happens on Sunday, June 8, 2008- Vermont Avenue

LOS FELIZ VILLAGE, (Los Angeles, CA) - April 7, 2008 - The Los Feliz Village Business Improvement District, "LFVBID" today announced that the 17th Annual Los Feliz Village Street Fair will take place on Sunday, June 8th 2008 on Vermont Avenue, between Hollywood Blvd. and Franklin Avenue. The Street Fair is free to the public, and will be open between 11AM and 8PM. www.LosFelizStreetFair.com

The Los Feliz Village Street Fair offers some of the most exciting outdoor entertainment available this summer in Los Angeles. Attractions include: 2 stages of Live musical entertainment, performing street artists, wine and beer gardens, delectable food from village restaurateurs and a midway featuring an array of colorful, eclectic, one-of-a-kind merchandise from local artists and exhibitors.

Returning for the second year in the row will be the "Green Scene", a special interest pavilion showcasing environmentally friendly, eco-conscious and sustainable products. For the kids, there will be plenty of rides, games, moon bounces, and a magician and storyteller.

Ermanno Neiviller, President of the LFVBID, commented: "We are really looking forward to welcoming the Greater Los Angeles community to Los Feliz Village on Sunday, June 8th to celebrate the Street Fair with us and enjoy the many attractions found only in Los Feliz Village!"

Musicians and performing artists interested in performing at the 17th Annual Los Feliz Village Street Fair should send a performance DVD and press kit to: LFV Street Fair, 2046 Hillhurst Ave., Suite 41 Los Angeles, CA 90027. First priority will be given to local musicians, however, all acts will be considered.

Companies interested in becoming a sponsor or exhibiting at the Los Feliz Village Street Fair should visit: <http://www.losfelizstreetfair.com/exhibitors.php>
